To whom it may Concern

Dear /Sir/Madam

I am very pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Mr Yohannis Alemu Ademe. I have known Mr Yohannis Alemu Ademe over the past two years, as chairman of Discipline Committee in students' union and a member of charity center from 2012 to October 2014 E.C and anticorruption club. In this capacity I have always been impressed with his level of maturity. He has a remarkable ability to work with people of all types, takes a great deal of pride in his work and has an outstanding leadership skill. Mr Yohannis Alemu Ademe has tackled his responsibilities interacting with university students, admin staffs and academic staffs in an effective and responsible manner.

In working with him, one can immediately senses that his values are in the right place. He has an amazing sense of responsibility; he interacts extremely well with students as well as with academic and admin staffs in the University. The other most interesting aspects of Mr Yohannis Alemu Ademe is that he does not hesitate to take any types of tasks/responsibilities we provide as to help other. This is one of the major reasons why he has gained my respect and that of my staff members.

As a director of students' service center, I recommend him to you very highly and without reservation for any position and scholarship in your organization.

Please, contact me at ayelign.gota@amu.edu.et and Mobile No: +251911098806 for further questions that you might have regarding this letter of recommendation.
